

Artifacts

June 2017

And Anchors

Keeping you up to date on all things old and new at the ...

Kittery Historical & Naval Museum

“The Castle: Stories of Portsmouth Naval Prison”

By Filmmaker Neil Novello

Quarterly Membership Meeting

June 13, 2017 7:00 pm

Kittery Lions Club 117 State Road

Award-Winning Filmmaker Neil Novello will be showing historical photos and video clips from his video documentary analogy called, The Castle: Stories of the Portsmouth Naval Prison.

The video clips & historic photos cover three time periods of the Naval prison's history: end of World War 1 and World War 11 and the Vietnam War. Although, the Naval prison closed in 1974, it still stands today overlooking the Piscataqua River adjacent to the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard in Kittery, ME.

Since 1985, Neil Novello's award-winning career includes - documentaries, television news, and family biographies. His documentaries about the Portsmouth Naval Prison in Kittery, Maine were featured at the New Hampshire & Portland Maine Film Festivals & available on DVD. Find out more:

<http://www.novelloSpeaks.com/about.html>

This program is free and open to the public.

Calling all Kids!

June 30th 11:00 a.m.

The Gundalow Company is Coming to
The Kittery Historical & Naval Museum

Take a trip though time with the Gundalow Company. Explore the Piscataqua Region with stories, activities and crafts. Using models and maps, learn about the historical role of the Gundalow on our Rivers. Take a look at the amazing network of waterways outside our doors, read some books about the river, including life in the waters. Test your skills as a sailor by tying some knots, building your own Gundalow model and designing plankton. This is a special free event for kids between the ages of 6-12.

Summer Hours

We will be open Wednesday through Saturday

From 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Sundays 1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

2017 Dates to Remember

June 17

Visit us at the Kittery Block Party

June 30

Explore the Gundalow for Kids

July 15

Lions Club Breakfast to Benefit

The Museum

August 5

“Portsmouth Through Time”

Book Signing

September 9

Annual Veterans Salute

September 12

Lasting Impressions by Paulette
Chernack and Cassandra Davidson

December 12

A Musical Holiday with

Rambling Richard

Reminder:

Check our website & FB page for more information and updates!

2017 Summer Raffle

Here is a sneak peek of one of this year's prizes. There are 3 different, locally themed framed prints by artist Gerald Stone. Stop by the Museum or Kittery Block Party to see all 3 and get your tickets! The drawing is Sept. 9th

“Portsmouth Through Time”

By Elizabeth C. Jewell

Book Signing

Don't let the name fool you! This recently released book has some Kittery, Isles of Shoals and Portsmouth Naval Shipyard history also. It also covers many seacoast towns in a “then and now” format. Author Elizabeth C. Jewell will be signing copies of her new book in the Museum. The book signing will take place from 10:00 a.m. – 1 p.m. We will have copies of the book for sale in our gift shop.

We're going Ape!

We are testing out a new way to keep you up to date with newsletters and other special announcements using Mail Chimp. If we have your email on file, you will also receive this Achors and Artifacts by email. If you like the tech version let us know. If you prefer the old fashioned approach, you will still receive your newsletters in your mailbox.